Marcia

The musical score is written for piano and voice. It begins with a piano introduction in 2/4 time, marked with a forte (f) dynamic. The key signature has two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The piano part features a steady eighth-note accompaniment in the right hand and a more active bass line in the left hand. The vocal line enters with the lyrics "The Kais-er once said to his friend". The piano part then plays a short melodic phrase marked with a piano (p) dynamic. The vocal line continues with "Then Von said to him Kais-er". The piano part provides harmonic support with chords and moving lines. The vocal line then sings "Von, The A-mer-i-cans are com-ing, Turn loose Bill, Cant you see the Yanks are com-ing, They're ten". The piano part continues with a steady accompaniment. The vocal line then sings "all the subs, And sink them all in the sea But A-mer-i-ca said mill-ion strong, And we know how they can fight Then the Kais-er got scared". The piano part continues with a steady accompaniment. The vocal line then sings "— turn loose the aer-o-planes, And we will drive Hein-le back to the Rhine. — and hol-lered let's have peace, For they are driv-ing us back to the Rhine." The piano part continues with a steady accompaniment.

The Kais-er once said to his friend Then Von said to him Kais-er

Von, The A-mer-i-cans are com-ing, Turn loose Bill, Cant you see the Yanks are com-ing, They're ten all the subs, And sink them all in the sea But A-mer-i-ca said mill-ion strong, And we know how they can fight Then the Kais-er got scared — turn loose the aer-o-planes, And we will drive Hein-le back to the Rhine.

— and hol-lered let's have peace, For they are driv-ing us back to the Rhine.
